

Storms

Thunderstorms are storms with lightning and thunder. Lightning is electricity caused from ice crystals in nimbus clouds that bump into each other. Thunder is caused by lightning. When you hear thunder, you know that there is lightning and you need to get inside.

Sometimes thunderstorms can bring tornadoes. These are caused when air begins to spin. Tornadoes are very dangerous and can cause a lot of damage. Always seek shelter during a tornado warning.